

“YOU SHALL NOT TURN ASIDE TO THE RIGHT HAND OR TO THE LEFT”

INTRODUCTION

A. Deuteronomy 5:32 (76)

The commands of God are meant to be adhered to strictly. Any variation from His will is condemned.

B. Deuteronomy 4:2 (75); Revelation 22:18-19 (500)

Tampering with God’s word in any way is wrong and will be punished.

C. 2nd Timothy 3:16-17 (481)

The scriptures are sufficient without alteration.

D. Deuteronomy 27:17 (85)

Just as it would be theft to relocate the boundary between you and your neighbor’s property, so it is sinful to change what God has established in His Word.

I. THE WORD OF GOD MUST NOT BE DIMINISHED.

A. Jeremiah 36:21-23 (324)

Many are guilty of taking away from God’s word, not by cutting it up and burning it like king Jehoiakim, but by simply failing to fulfill all of the commands.

B. Matthew 23:23 (401)

It is presumed that because there are “weightier matters of the law” that the lesser things may go undone. However, Jesus said, “*these you ought to have done without leaving the others undone”.

C. Matthew 22:36-40 (401)

Again, it is presumed that because there is a “first and great commandment” (38) and a “second like it” (39) that other commands may go unheeded. Christ explained, though, that these two commandments are the greatest because they represent the categories into which all other commandments may be classified (40). Thus, by obeying all of God's commands, the first and second are fulfilled.

D. Psalm 119:160 (252)

All of God's will is important, such that nothing should be disregarded.

E. James 2:10 (487)

God holds man accountable to His every precept.

F. God does not tolerate disobedience.

1. Genesis 2:16-17 (1); 3:1-24 (1)

Adam and Eve ate fruit that God had forbidden, so He expelled them from Paradise.

2. Numbers 20:7-12 (65)

Moses struck a rock he had been told to speak to, so He was prevented from entering the promised land.

II. THE WORD OF GOD MUST NOT BE ENHANCED.

One need not write additional books to include in the Bible to be guilty of adding to God's word. Just practicing more than He has authorized in religion is adding to His word.

A. Proverbs 30:6 (269)

No truth is found in adding to God's word. Thus, it is directly forbidden.

B. Galatians 3:15 (470)

This principle is true among men, so why not with God?

C. 2nd John 9 (492)

To go beyond the teaching of Christ is to be without God.

D. 1st Corinthians 4:6 (461)

We must learn "not to think beyond what is written".

E. 1st Peter 4:11 (489)

We should have nothing to say if God has not already said it.

F. God's silence must be respected.

1. 2nd Samuel 7:1-7 (129)

God clearly indicated that David had no authority to act by asking him, “Have I ever spoken a word to anyone... saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’”

2. Hebrews 1:1-13 (482)

Angels are prohibited by God’s silence (5, 13) from assuming prerogatives given only to God’s Son.

3. Hebrews 8:4; 7:14 (486)

God’s strictness applies even to His Son, who, “if He were on earth, He would not be a priest”. The reason He could not have filled that role during His earthly lifetime is that “our Lord arose from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood”. When nothing is said in scripture, there is no authority to act.

G. 1st Corinthians 6:12 (464); 10:23 (465)

The fact that we must not add to God’s word should not be interpreted to mean that everything that is authorized is specifically authorized. Some things are authorized generically. Within the realm of what is “lawful” is that which is “helpful” or “expedient”.

CONCLUSION

A. Matthew 15:7-9 (397)

Jesus plainly said that it is possible to worship in vain, that is: uselessly. God is not obligated to accept just anything that is offered to Him.

B. Genesis 4:3-5 (2)

The first recorded example of worship demonstrates that not all worship is acceptable, for God had no respect for Cain’s offering.

C. Leviticus 10:1-3 (44)

Nadab and Abihu, priests of God, were destroyed by Him when they presented unholy worship.
